A big fat raindrop landed on Grumpy Bear's nose with a plop.

"The rain's going to spoil everything," he sighed.

"What an unlucky day for a picnic."

"Don't worry, Grumpy Bear," said Good Luck Bear.

"Every cloud has a silver lining."

"What do you mean?" asked Grumpy Bear.

"I mean something good will come of the rain,"
said Good Luck Bear. "Just you wait!"

"And there it is!" said Cheer Bear.

"A beautiful rainbow to ride down to our picnic!"

"Whee!"

Laughing, the Care Bears landed in a heap at Share Bear's feet.

"What's the matter?" asked Cheer Bear.

"I brought five sunshine bars and five rainbow bars, and they all broke in two," said Share Bear.

“What terrible luck,” said Grumpy Bear.

“Remember, every cloud has a silver lining,”
said Good Luck Bear.

"Yum!" shouted Funshine Bear. "Now we can each taste both treats!"

"Come with us to the picnic, Bedtime Bear!"
said Share Bear.

"I can't. I lost my starry nightcap, and I have to find it," said Bedtime Bear.

"Oh, dear, more bad luck," said Grumpy Bear.

"Good luck won't be far behind," said Good Luck Bear, smiling.

"We just have to look for it."

"And for Bedtime Bear's missing cap!" said Friend Bear.

“Look, I found our missing picnic blanket!” said Share Bear.
“That’s lucky for us,” said Cheer Bear. “We never would have found the blanket if Bedtime Bear hadn’t lost his nightcap.”

"But we still haven't found my cap," said Bedtime Bear.

“There it is!” shouted Good Luck Bear.
“And what a perfect spot for a picnic!”
said Cheer Bear.

“Double the good luck!” said Funshine Bear.

“Now the only bad luck is that Tenderheart Bear, Wish Bear, and Love-a-lot Bear aren’t here yet,” said Good Luck Bear.

“What’s the silver lining in that?” wondered Grumpy Bear.

“Sorry we’re late!” said Tenderheart Bear.
“We were taking time to fill the picnic basket with everyone’s favorites,” said Wish Bear.

"And making enough rainbow punch for everyone,"
said Love-a-lot Bear.

"Every cloud really does have a silver lining!" said Grumpy Bear.
"And this one is delicious!" said Good Luck Bear.
